COLLECT

In Thine infinite goodness, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to watch over Thy household, that even as it relies solely upon the hope of Thy heavenly grace, so it may ever be defended by Thy protection. Through our Lord.

SUNDAY EPISTLE: Colossians. 3. 12-17

Brethren: Put ye on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, the bowels of mercy, benignity, humility, modesty, patience: bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if any have a complaint against another: even as the Lord hath forgiven you, so do you also. But above all these things have charity, which is the bond of perfection: and let the peace of Christ rejoice in your hearts, wherein also you are called in one body: and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly, in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, hymns and spiritual canticles, singing in grace in your hearts to God. All whatsoever you do in word or in work, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to God and the Father by Jesus Christ our Lord.

SUNDAY GOSPEL: Matthew 13. 25-30

At that time Jesus spoke this parable to the multitudes: The kingdom of heaven is likened to a man that sowed good seed in his field. But while men were asleep, his enemy came and oversowed cockle among the wheat, and went his way. And when the blade was sprung up and had brought forth fruit, then appeared also the cockle. And the servants of the good man of the house coming, said to him: Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? Whence then hath it cockle? And he said to them: An enemy hath done this. And the servants said to him: Wilt thou that we go and gather it up? And he said: No, lest perhaps, gathering up the cockle, you root up the wheat also together with it. Suffer both to grow until the harvest, and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers: Gather up first the cockle and bind it into bundles to burn, but the wheat gather ye into my barn.

For your continued growth in holiness and piety, we encourage you to attend Mass during the week.

◊ Note from the Pastor: On the occasion of wedding anniversaries, graduations, and the like, I like to remind people that the reason we celebrate such occasions is because of the amount of effort, time, and perseverance that was put into the endeavor. How desperately the world needs to see examples of constancy and resolve as so many nowadays quickly throw in the towel when faced with difficulty.

Our parish family will soon celebrate both a great accomplishment and a new chapter on December 11th. After many months of hard work and great effort, I am happy to announce that on December 11th, at 2 PM, the Most Reverend Bishop Olmsted will dedicate our new church, St. Edward the Confessor. The Most Reverend Auxiliary Bishop Eduardo Nevares is also planning to attend. What an honor to have both Bishops of the diocese at our dedication!

The dedication ceremony will be followed by a Solemn High Mass to be offered by Fr. Terra. Additionally, we will not send you away empty handed, or better said, empty-stomached, as the mass will be followed by a large fiesta with food and kid-friendly activities to celebrate both the dedication/reopening of the parish and the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, my priestly Patroness.

There will be many more details to follow and ways that you can help us so please keep your eyes on the bulletin and for an upcoming flocknote. For now, please mark this date on your calendar and come celebrate the great effort and time many of your fellow parishioners have put into this project, as well as the blessing God has granted us with both a new church and a bright future. May the names of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph be praised and blessed, now and forever. Amen.

◊ Announcement: I, Fr. Passo, am happy to inform you that Miss Jyllian Carter, a parishioner and daily mass goer of our parish, has been accepted into the Carmelite Monastery of the Infant Jesus of Prague in Traverse City, Michigan. What a great joy to celebrate the priestly ordination of Fr. Mundattchundayil last weekend and now to celebrate another parishioner of our parish who will be consecrating her life completely to our Divine Savior. Please keep Jyllian in your prayers. In return, we ask her for her prayers for us and in praying for each other we will remain united despite the great distance that separates us. Miss Carter's entrance date is November 24th of this year. We are both proud and happy for you, Jyllian.

Communion: Please remember that when you are receiving Communion, you must kneel if you are able, tilt your head back slightly, close your eyes, and extend your tongue. You do not say "Amen" afterwards.

*Please silence your cell phone. Thank you.

◊ Today's Mass in the Hymnal:

423 Proper of the Mass

At High Mass:

884 Most Ancient of All Mysteries

567 Asperges

740 Gloria

768 Creed

743 Ite missa est

961 Salve Regina

◊ Sacred music: "Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly, in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another, in psalms, hymns, and spiritual canticles, singing in grace in your hearts to God" (from today's Epistle, Col. 3:16). Mozart's Missa Brevis in D for choir, soloists, strings, and organ will be sung for next Sunday's Solemn High Mass, along with his setting of Ps. 112, "Laudate pueri" from Sunday Vespers, and two church sonatas for strings and organ. Because of the more complex nature of this music, in order to minimize distractions, families with babies or toddlers are encouraged to consider sitting in the hall or going to one of the Low Masses next Sunday, November 14th. The following Sunday, November 21st, the eve of the feast of St. Cecilia, patroness of musicians, a second collection for the choir fund will be taken at the High Mass. May God reward your generosity!

◊ First Mass & Blessing: Fr. Elijah Mundattuchundayil will offer the 10:30 AM Mass next Sunday, November 14th, and will bestow his first blessing in the courtyard after all Sunday Masses. A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions is granted to the faithful who hear the 10:30 AM Mass and receive the blessing afterward.

◊ Dinner Reception: A dinner reception in honor of Fr. Mundattuchundayil will be held at Mater Misericordiae on Sunday, November 14th, at 5 PM. Please RSVP at tinyurl.com/rvvu8nve.

◊ Vacation: Fr. Masutti will be taking much needed and a long overdue vacation from Tuesday, November 9th until Tuesday, November 16th. Please keep him in your prayers.

◊ Welcome: Please welcome Fr. Caleb Insko, Parochial Vicar at North American Martyrs parish in Edmonds, Washington. Fr. Insko is a Phoenix native and is also a former Mater Misericordiae parishioner. Please keep him in your prayers.

◊ Registration: If you have decided to make Mater your parish, please register. Those 18-years old and over need to register under an individual registration even if you are still living at home with your parents who are registered. This is important if you are needing sacraments, letters or documents from our office. Anyone requesting sacraments is required to be active parishioners for a minimum of 90-days. Please register on our website: phoenixlatinmass.org/connect

◊ Flocknote: Sign up for our parish's Flocknote through our website to receive all the latest news and schedule updates.

◊ Diaper Drive: Mater Vitae, is sponsoring our second annual diaper drive on Sunday, November 14th and 21st. There will be a pack 'n play set up in the hall foyer to leave diapers of any size. Sizes 4, 5, & 6 are most needed. For more information or to donate outside of the scheduled times, contact Elisabeth Moore at (602) 563-4096.

◊ St. Anne's Homeschool Apostolate (SAHA): SAHA is our brand-new ministry offering resources and activities for Mater Misericordiae homeschool families. Join us for monthly feast day celebrations, field trips, and weekly park days and more! Please email homeschool@phoenixlatinmass.org for more information or to register. All members are required to complete safe environment training before attending any events.

◊ Thanksgiving Dinner: St. Vincent de Paul has offered to gift us a surplus of their items for Thanksgiving dinner. If you are in need of a turkey or other items, please contact the parish office at office@phoenixlatinmass.org.

◊ Youth Group: The youth group will meet on November 20th from 9 AM-12 PM in the garage at Mater for a gingerbread house building competition and spiritual talk by Father Passo. Please send in your RSVP and any questions to Mrs. Emily Daly at youth@phoenixlatinmass.org.

◊ Blessed Items: Make sure that your items are placed in a small box/bag and are grouped together with your name, so they're less likely to be lost. Please do not leave valuable items on the table to be blessed as some items have unfortunately come up missing. Also, it is not necessary to indicate the type of blessing you are requesting as our priests will bless each item with the appropriate blessing. Please bring items on Saturday or Sunday when the church hall is open and be prompt to pick up your items after they have been blessed. We appreciate your cooperation.

◊ Coffee & Donuts: Starting in November, Coffee & Donut Hour, after the 8 AM mass will ONLY occur on the first and third Sunday of each month. Please join us, and consider a suggested minimum donations of $1 per donut/coffee so we may continue to enjoy these new special treats all year long. Any additional proceeds benefit our Building Fund. May God Reward You!

◊ Chant Group: The Phoenix Gregorian Chant Group will not meet this month because of the reception for Fr. Mundattuchundayil. The next singing will take place December 12. See the Facebook group page for more information: facebook.com/phoenixgregorian.

◊ Silence: Please maintain silence in the Church, vestibule and hall before, during and after Mass.
