COLLECT

In Thine infinite goodness, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to watch over Thy household, that even as it relies solely upon the hope of Thy heavenly grace, so it may ever be defended by Thy protection. Through our Lord.

SUNDAY EPISTLE: Colossians 3. 12-17

Brethren: Put ye on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, the bowels of mercy, benignity, humility, modesty, patience: bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if any have a complaint against another: even as the Lord hath forgiven you, so do you also. But above all these things have charity, which is the bond of perfection: and let the peace of Christ rejoice in your hearts, wherein also you are called in one body: and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly, in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, hymns and spiritual canticles, singing in grace in your hearts to God. All whatsoever you do in word or in work, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to God and the Father by Jesus Christ our Lord.

SUNDAY GOSPEL: Matthew 13. 24-30

At that time Jesus spoke this parable to the multitudes: The kingdom of heaven is likened to a man that sowed good seed in his field. But while men were asleep, his enemy came and oversowed cockle among the wheat, and went his way. And when the blade was sprung up and had brought forth fruit, then appeared also the cockle. And the servants of the good man of the house coming, said to him: Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? Whence then hath it cockle? And he said to them: An enemy hath done this. And the servants said to him: Wilt thou that we go and gather it up? And he said: No, lest perhaps, gathering up the cockle, you root up the wheat also together with it. Suffer both to grow until the harvest, and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers: Gather up first the cockle and bind it into bundles to burn, but the wheat gather ye into my barn.

COLLECTA

Te rogamos, Señor, guardes a tu familia con una continua piedad, para que sea siempre por ti defendida, pues se apoya en la sola esperanza de la gracia celestial. Por nuestro Señor.

DOMINGO EPÍSTOLA: Col. 3. 12-17

Hermanos: Como escogidos que sois de Dios, santos y amados, revestíos de entrañas de misericordia, de benignidad, humildad, modestia, paciencia: sufríos unos a otros y perdonaos mutuamente, si alguno tiene queja contra otro. Así como el Señor os ha perdonado, así también hacedlo vosotros. Mas, sobre todo esto, tened caridad, que es el vínculo de perfecta perfección. Y triunfe vuestros corazones la paz de Cristo, a la que fuisteis llamados para formar un solo cuerpo. Sed agradecidos. La palabra de Cristo, more en vosotros abundantemente con toda sabiduría; enseñaos y amonestaos unos a otros, con salmos, himnos y cánticos espirituales, y cantad de corazón a Dios dándole gracias. Cualquier cosa que hagáis, sea de palabra o de obra, hacedlo todo en el nombre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, dando gracias a Dios Padre por medio de Jesucristo Señor nuestro.

DOMINGO EVANGELIO: Mat. 13. 24-30

En aquél tiempo: Dijo Jesús a las turbas esta parábola: Es semejante el reino de los cielos a un hombre que sembró buena simiente en su campo. Y mientras dormían los hombres, vino cierto enemigo suyo y sembró cizaña en medio del trigo. Y llegándose los criados del padre, le dijeron: Señor, ¿no sembraste buena simiente en tu campo? Pues ¿cómo tiene cizaña? Contestóles: Algún enemigo mío ha hecho esto. Replicaron los criados. Replicaron los criados: ¿Quieres que vayamos a recogerla? No, les respondió, no sea que al arrancar la cizaña, arranquéis con ella el trigo. Dejad crecer uno y otra hasta la siega; que al tiempo de siega diré a los segadores: Coged primero la cizaña y atadla en manojos para quemarla; mas el trigo guardadlo en mi granero.

NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

◊ Flocknote from Fr. Passo: In the autobiography of St. Anthony Mary Claret, he shares a disheartening meditation he once had in which he saw his own particular judgment. There present was Christ, the Judge, and the devil making accusations. The devil was laughing at Christ and pointing at St. Anthony Claret saying “You spelt your blood for this man and yet, all his life he chose to serve me! I never gave my life for him nor spelt my blood, but he chose to serve me.” In seeing this the Saint reformed his life but for us, I fear that the devil is having a similarly good laugh in regard to this satanic conference in Scottsdale. Why? Because of the division and strife, it has caused amongst many Catholics here in the diocese. There are some that still wish to attend the public protests despite the Bishop’s wishes. This past week I spoke to a good friend of mine who is a renowned Exorcist. I asked him which prayer would be more efficacious? To attend the protests against the Bishop’s wishes or to spend time in front of the Blessed Sacrament at our parishes as the Bishop has instructed us to do. He reminded me that this battle is not against flesh and blood but against principalities and powers and that the devils only submit when prayer is united to proper authority. Not only is the prayer more efficacious when it is united to the will of the Bishop but the Exorcist also shared that it is even harmful to the soul of the person who tries to take on the devil without lawful authority. There very well could be spiritual repercussions for those who attend without the Bishop’s authority. Finally, he shared with me his own personal experience in a diocese he used to work in, in which the satanic groups were offering black masses. When the public protests stopped, and the satanic group failed to get publicity, so did their black masses. Let us follow the words of St. Ignatius of Antioch whose feast we just celebrated last week when he said: “Allow nothing whatsoever to exist among you that can give rise to division. In the same way that the Lord was wholly one with the Father and never acted independently of him, so you yourselves, never act independently of your bishop and clergy.”

◊ Confirmation Update: Dear Faithful, I am very happy to inform you that Bishop Olmsted has graciously accepted our invitation to confer confirmations in the extraordinary form! This is a tremendous blessing for us especially under the current circumstances which goes to show once again the Bishop's exceptional pastoral care towards our community and his willingness to provide the old rites for those in his diocese. I know that there has been great unrest regarding the uncertainty of the Latin Mass but as long as we have Bishops like Bishop Olmsted, we can be assured that they will do everything in their power to help us. I have asked for Bishop Olmsted himself since this will most likely be his last time. Therefore, I encourage you to take advantage of this great blessing if you or your children have not been confirmed. If you have not yet registered for reception of the Sacraments please do so by emailing ccd@phoenixlatinmass.org.
